The essays shall be handed in at the Information Centre at the Faculty of law in Universitetsgata 22. Bring two copies of your essay, remember to also bring your student card or some other kind of ID. The paper shall also be submitted in Fronter *

Use relevant contributions on your reading list to answer one of the following two questions:

1. How does globalization affect state sovereignty in matters of punishment and crime control?

OR

2. Describe and discuss the relevance and impact of human rights on the discourses and practices of criminal justice.

The question can be answered in English or Norwegian. Size: Maximum 4000 words (roughly 10 pages). Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not included. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the 4000 word limit.

Any exam at the University of Oslo are being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. The text recognition software Ephorus will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus, lecture notes, web pages, other students' papers or your own previously submitted papers. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.
