

Checklist for the upcoming exams

- Withdraw from exams you will not take in the StudentWeb before the closing date
- Check each course's website regularly for potential changes or important information
- Check locations and your candidate number in StudentWeb
- Bring a valid proof of identity
- Bring ballpoint pens
- Bring a watch. Cell phones/mobiles should be switched off and be out of reach
- Bring food and drinks. Lunch is not served, and you cannot expect to be able to go out to buy this during the exam.
- Be present no later than 90 minutes before the exam starts, 08:30 when the exam starts at 10:00
- Read the "Detailed regulations for the Faculty of Law" http://www.jus.uio.no/studier/regelverk/naermere_regler_engelsk.html
- All kinds of communication between candidates and persons outside are forbidden, also during breaks.
- Do not leave your seat without permission from the invigilator
- The examination sheet
 - Fill out page number and your candidate number on every sheet, do not write your name
 - The left part of the sheet is reserved for the censors, you should only write on the right side
 - Avoid writing on stacks of paper, and make sure the original and one of the copies is clearly readable
 - Hand in two copies and keep one copy for yourself
- Support material
 - Read the rules regarding the support material and references very carefully <http://www.jus.uio.no/studier/regelverk/auxiliary-materials.html>
 - Make sure you are not bringing anything into the examination room which is not allowed. It is your responsibility to bring only the material covered by the general rules + the support allowed in each course.
 - Make sure your dictionary is approved by the regulations
 - Do not make marks in support materials if you are unsure whether or not they are permitted

Students who are registered for exams taught in Norwegian (e.g. Nord- Plus students) must also check the list for Norwegian courses, as there are some important differences.
