Answer one of the following three questions:

1. Arce and Long introduce the concept of ‘counterdevelopment’ as an alternative to conventional development approaches to the ‘problem of culture’. Use examples to review and discuss their proposition.
2. Critically review ‘partnership in development’ by discussing its challenges, opportunities as well as possible alternatives. Draw on the theoretical debates and empirical examples presented in the literature.
3. Ferguson calls the development industry and its discourse the ‘anti-politics machine’. Discuss the relation between development and social movements in the light of this proposition, using examples from the literature.
