Agenda:
Housing
Prepare for your arrival
Start of studies

Housing

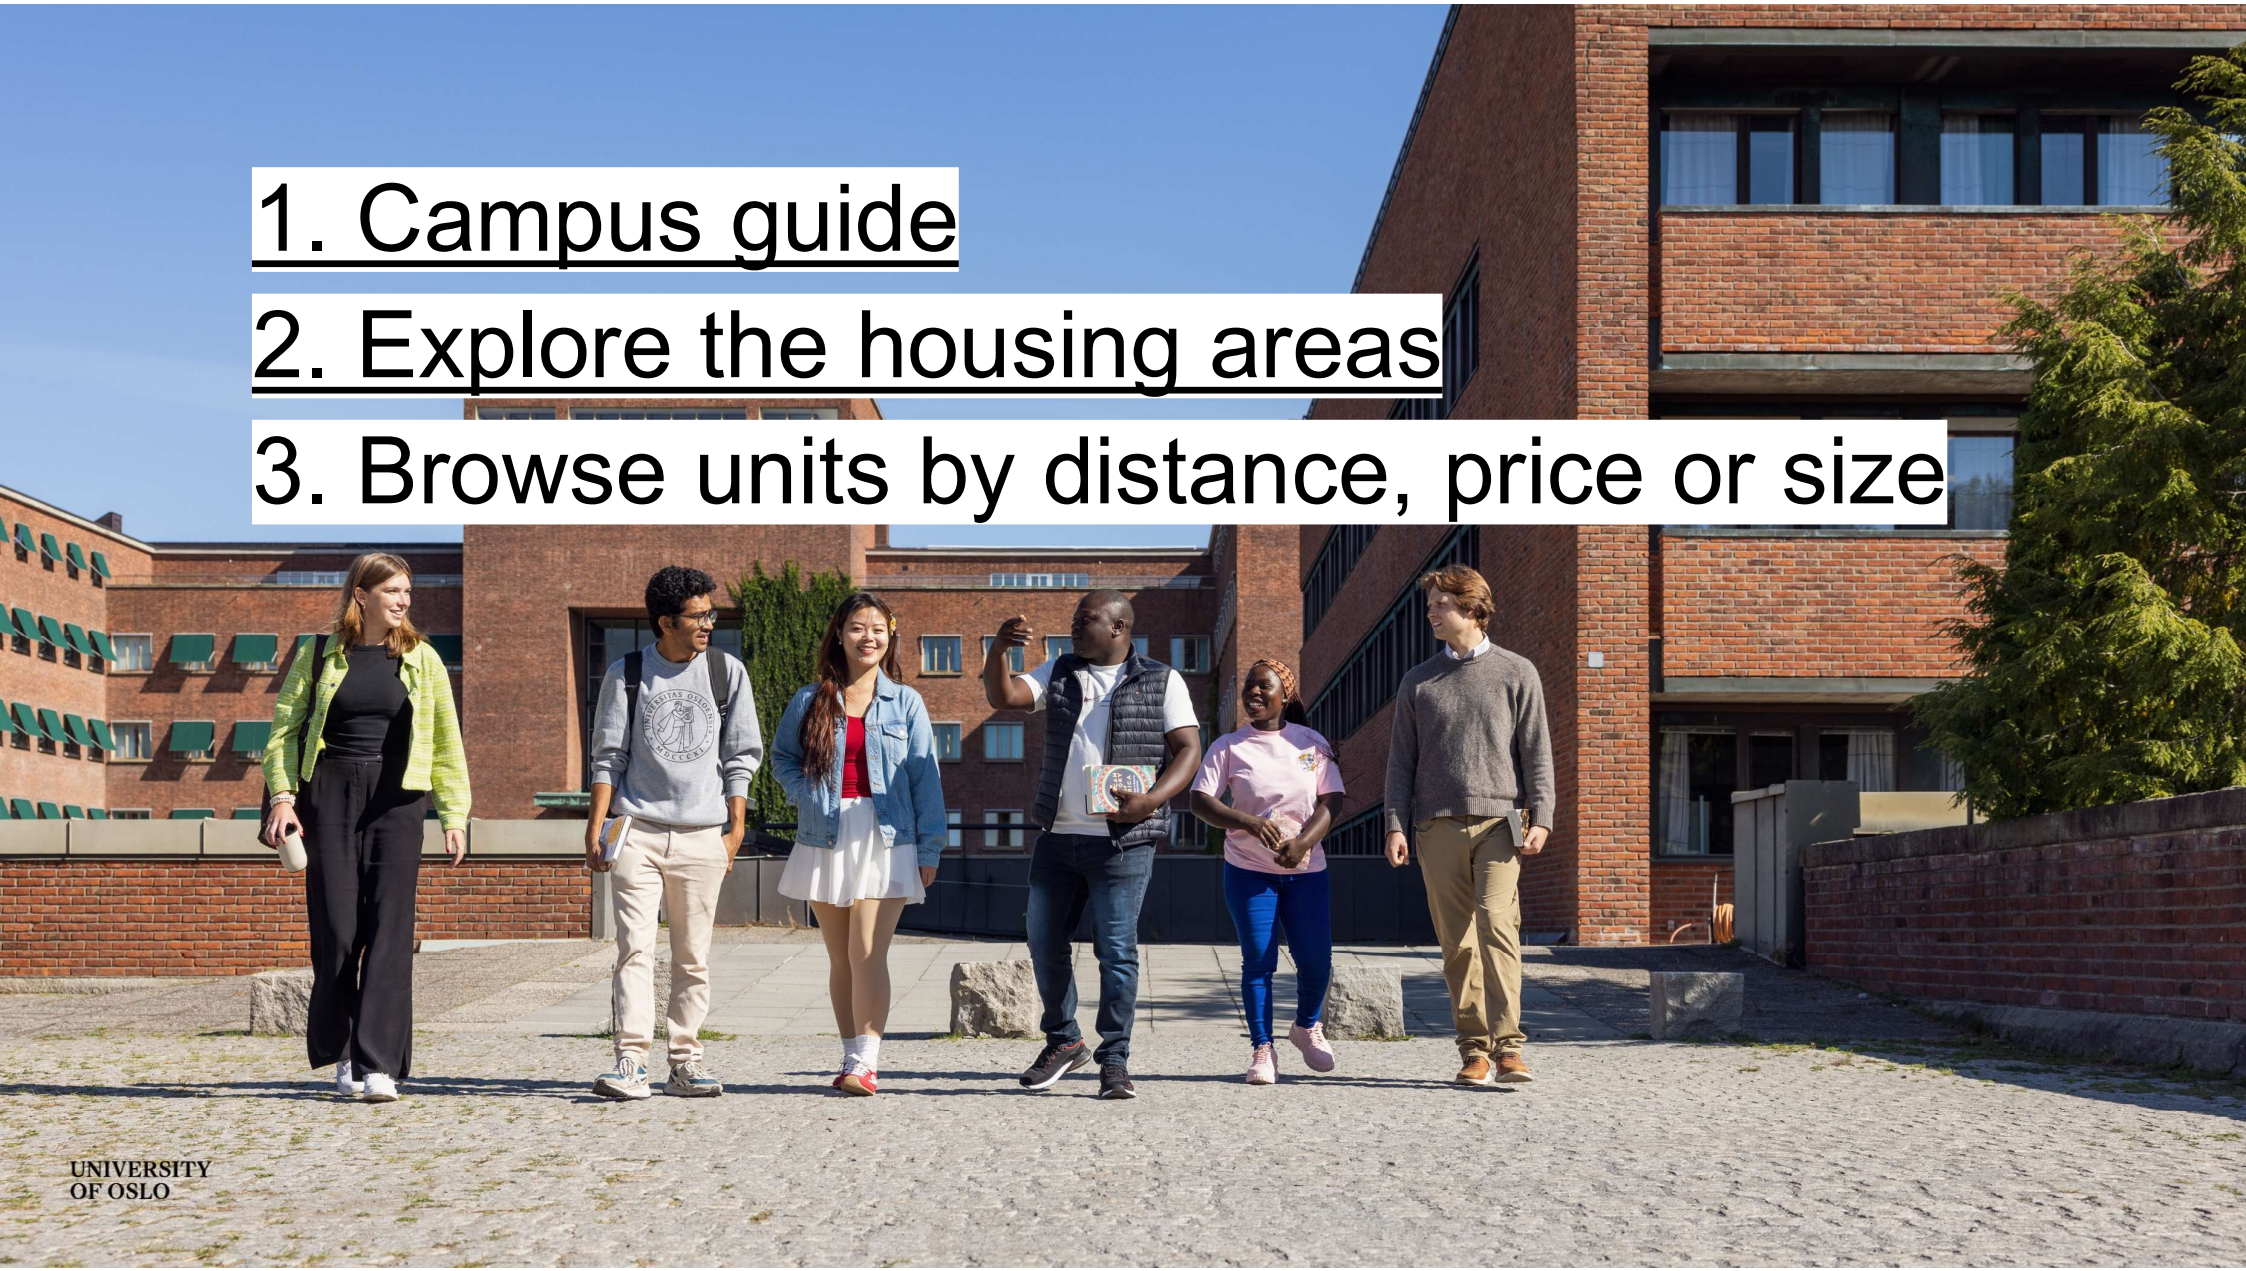

You are guaranteed SiO housing if you:

- Apply for single unfurnished room
- Within the deadline 1 June
- Choose 1 August as date of arrival

Please note:

- You may be prioritised for family housing if you notify us and apply by 1 May.
- You are not guaranteed or prioritised for couples' housing.
- Please contact SiO Housing if you require special needs provisions, i.e. due to physical disability or visual impairment.

1. Campus guide
2. Explore the housing areas
3. Browse units by distance, price or size

What to bring

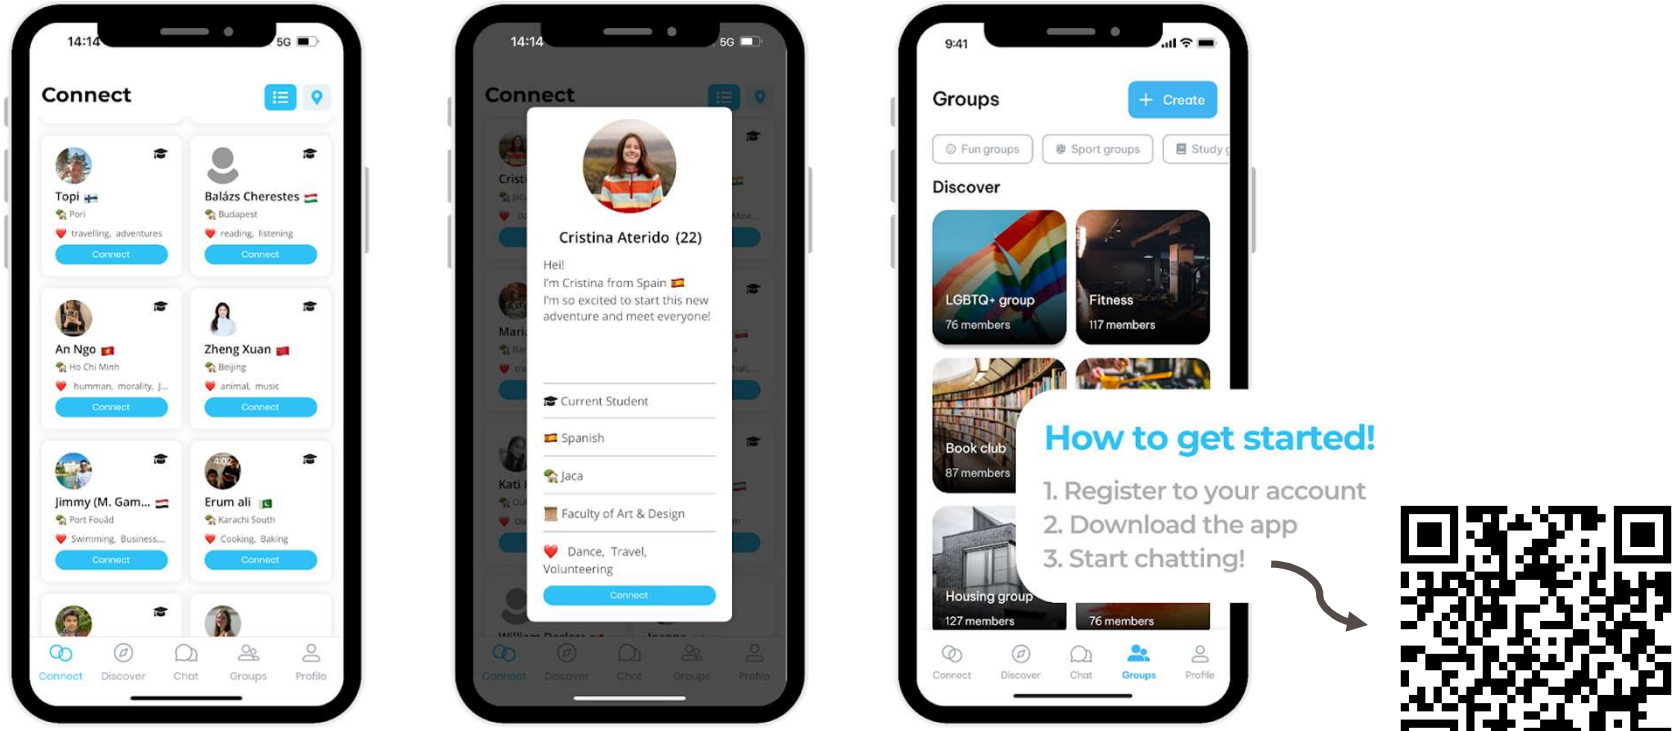

- Most things are easy to find in Oslo
- Oslo has four distinct seasons:
  - spring, summer, autumn, and winter
- Essentials on arrival:
  - Router to use the wifi
  - Adapter (a typical two-pin European plug)
  - Bedding (duvet, pillow, sheets)
- Packing list

Ask your fellow (and current) students!

Late arrival

- If you will be arriving after the semester starts:
  - Contact your faculty's information center to get information about courses and registrations.
  - Inform your department and/or programme of the date of your arrival if you will not be able to attend compulsory meetings and/or lessons
  - Contact SiO housing to inform them of the date of your arrival to avoid cancellation of housing contract
