

UiO : Universitetet i Oslo

LIVING IN OSLO

Getting around the city

Ruter#

T-bane

Bus

Tram

Train

Ferry

Colourbox.com

Use Google maps to find the fastest option

Buy a 30-day student ticket (1 zone)

Remember to have the Student ID app or paper semester card

Official travel guide to Oslo

NO EN DE ES IT FR

Search the site ...

ACTIVITIES AND ATTRACTIONS

WHAT'S ON?

RESTAURANTS AND NIGHTLIFE

ACCOMMODATION

TRANSPORT

Guide to Oslo in Corona times

- Digital museum visits
- Open activities and attractions
- Open restaurants and take away
- Calendar over outdoor events

Close to nature

Norwegians love to spend their free time in “Marka” (the Oslo nature)

- Hiking
- Fishing
- Skiing
- Alpine/snowboard

Easily accessible by T-bane or bus

Smart shopping

- Independent shops:
 - Many different spices
 - delicious fresh food and vegetables
 - nuts, olives, beans
 - some special food from a certain area (Africa, Asia, Middle-East etc.)
- Open on Sundays and national holidays!
- Grønland and Tøyen area

Ask you fellow students for tips!

Need help with:

- Mobile phone companies
- Where to buy things for you room
- How to survive on a low budget
- Where to go out
- Where to eat
- Social events

Join the Facebook group International Students at The University of Oslo \(UiO\)

Start of Studies events

- Events for all international students
- Start of studies programme at the faculty
- Buddy system for the exchange students

Start of studies

The autumn semester 2021 starts Monday 16 August.

Start of studies

At the semester start there will be events for international students and faculty events. Through these social events you will be able to make new

Events by Knutepunktet

UNIVERSITY
OF OSLO

☰ Menu

← Student life ← Events

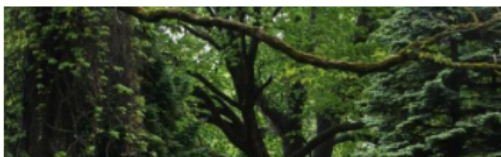

Events - Knutepunktet

Events -
Knutepunktet

- February
- March
- April
- May
- June
- August
- November

Life is more than studies and this, of course, also applies when living abroad. The aim with these events is to contribute cultural and social elements to the academic life and thus make your stay in Norway as an international student even more pleasant and interesting.

Upcoming

Time and place: Aug. 29, 2021 12:50 PM–2:30 PM, Lids hus/The Botanical Museum, Add to calendar

Guided tour in Oslo

Botanical Garden

Contact

special-events@admin.uio.no

Join us on Facebook

Visit the Facebook page for International Students at UiO, and get a taste of the life in Oslo!

