BETWEEN DREAM AND REALITY: DEBATING THE IMPACT OF WORLD HERITAGE LISTING

14-15 NOVEMBER 2013
KULTRANS, UNIVERSITY OF OSLO
14 November 2013

Venue: Niels Treschows hus 12th floor

9.00-9.30 Registration and coffee
9.30-9.45 Welcome
9.45-10.45 Key note 1

Owe Ronström: Consequences of World Heritage Production. Views from Visby

10.45-11.30 Session 1: Introducing World Heritage cities
10.45-11.00 Laura Pierantoni: Historic urban landscape: changing towards sustainable development in the governance of World Heritage cities
11.00-11.15 Karla Nunes Penna & Jose Hernando Torres Flechas: The grass is not always greener: the impact of World Heritage status on local communities in developing countries

11.15-11.30 Discussion
11.30-12.30 Lunch
12.30-13.40 Session 2: World Heritage cities and the battle between preservation and development
12.45-13.00 Zerrin Hoşgör & Oksan Tandogan: Urban renewal and preservation challenges in the World Heritage Sites of Istanbul
13.00-13.15 Jens Hougaard & Luis Filipe Rocha: Mozambique Island – transformation, regeneration or degeneration

13.15-13.40 Discussion
13.40-14.00 Coffee
14.00-15.10 Session 3: World Heritage impact on archaeological sites and monuments
14.30-14.45 Manana Tevzadze: Reconstructed Bagrati Cathedral – a sacrificed World heritage status

Draft program as of 01.11.2013 – program may be altered.
14:45-15.10 Discussion

15.10-15.20 Coffee

15.20-16.20 Key note 2

Thomas Schmitt: The governance of Outstanding Universal Values – realities versus former dreams

19.30 Conference Dinner at Olympen (included for all those who present papers, possible for others to join in (but they have to cover the costs)
15 November 2013

Venue: Auditorium 2 Georg Sverderups Hus (University Library)

09.00-09.15 Coffee

9.15-10.30 Session 4: International World Heritage debates and conflicts

9.30-9.45 Dennis Rodwell: The negative impacts of World Heritage branding: Liverpool – a cautionary tale

9.45-10.00 Vanessa Tuensmeyer: The UNESCO World Heritage Committee – An additional forum for Indigenous activism?

10.00-10.30 Discussion

10.30-10.45 Coffee

10.45-11.45 Key note 3

11.45-12.30 Lunch

12.30-13.30 Session 5: World Heritage impact on natural heritage

12.30-12.45 Allan Sande: Natural world heritage and democratic challenges in Scandinavian Countries

12.45-13.00 Kristal Coe: Is it really just the trees? Interrogating OUV in the Greater Blue Mountains World Heritage Area

13.00-13.15 Herdis Hølleland: The Eruption – When the World Heritage Status made all the difference?

13.15-13.30 Discussion

13.30-14.30 Key note 4

Sophia Labadi: Identifying the socio-economic impacts of World Heritage: an impossible mission?

14.30-14.45 Coffee

14.45-16.30 Session 6: Dreaming of impact: World Heritage and tourism

14.45-15.00 Kristina Svels: Single-handed or common governance of a World Heritage site

Draft program as of 01.11.2013 – program may be altered.
15.00-15.15 Anaraa Nyamdorj: World heritage vs. ethnic pride: a deadlock on the steppes

15.15-15.30 Nikola Naumov: Seeking the real value of World Heritage Listing – A post-communist perspective

15.30-15.45 Michael Schimek: Exchanging views and projects – positive effects of international networking in World Heritage site management

15.45-16.00 Woohee Kim: World heritage designation; the change in people’s awareness of world heritage sites

16.00-16.30 Discussion

16.30-17.00 Closing

Post-conference drinks for those staying in Oslo can be organised.