Assignments about the Greek World. Choose one only of the following three assignments:

- a. Explain in what respect(s) the Greek colonisation of the Archaic period (eighth to sixth century BCE) both resembles and differs from colonization in the modern senses of the term, that is ‘subjugation of a people or area especially as an extension of state power’ and ‘migration to and settlement in an inhabited or uninhabited area’.
- b. Explain the religious policy of the Athenian tyrants of the second half of the sixth century BCE and how it is connected to the emergence of the Greek drama.
- c. Taking the visual representations in the appendix below as your starting point analyze the religious landscape of the Hellenistic world. You are expected to comment on the balance between the universal and local character of divine worship, the influence of foreign religions on Greek cults, and the balance between public and personal religion.

Forklar på hvilke måter den greske koloniseringen i den arkaiske perioden (8. til 6. århundre fvt) svarer til og på hvilke måter den er forskjellig fra ‘kolonisering’ i begrepets moderne definisjon(er), dvs. ‘undertvingelse av et folk eller område som en måte å utvide en statsmakt’ og ‘tilflytting til og bosetting i et område, bebodd eller ikke bebodd’.
- b. Forklar den religiøse politikken til tyrannene i Athen i 2. halvdel av 6. årh. fvt., og hvordan denne politikken er knyttet til tilblivelsen av genren ‘drama’.

42 Essay 2

See Norwegian translations and the textbox in which you should submit your answer below.

Assignments about the Roman World. Choose one only of the following three assignments:

- Describe the Roman army and its development from the Early Republic to Late Antiquity. In your answer, you can discuss organisation, recruitment, strategy, localisation, the Romans' adversaries, and other aspects. You can also bring in Roman texts we have read in class.
- Augustus is often regarded as the one who transformed the Roman Republic into a new, monarchic form of government, the Principate. How did the new form of government differ from the old one? Do you also see similarities?
- Our knowledge of Antiquity depends on sources in the form of texts, buildings, images and other objects. However, the description of Antiquity provided by the sources is neither full nor neutral, as sources are often lacking or incomplete, or shaped by cultural and political circumstances in periods closer to our own. Give a few examples from the part of the course devoted to the Roman world of sources that are at our disposal and briefly discuss these sources' limitations and how subsequent historical developments have formed their perception. You can use additional examples from the part devoted to the Greek world, but this is not obligatory.

Oppgaver om den romerske verden. Velg kun én blant følgende oppgaver:

- Beskriv den romerske hæren og dens utvikling fra den tidlige republikken til senantikken. I svaret kan du ta opp organisering, rekrytering, strategi, lokalisering, hvilke motstandere romerne møtte, og andre forhold. Du kan også trekke inn tekster som vi har lest i undervisningen.
- Augustus omtales ofte som den som omformet den romerske republikken til en ny eneveldig styreform, principatet. Hvordan var den nye styreformen forskjellig fra den gamle? Finnes også likhetstrekk?
- Vår kunnskap om antikken avhenger av kilder i form av tekster, bygninger, bilder og andre objekter. Men kildene gir et bilde av antikken som hverken er fullstendig eller nøytralt, siden kilder kan mangle eller være ufullstendige, eller være formet av kulturelle og politiske forhold i epoker nærmere opp til vår egen tid. Gi noen eksempler fra Roma-delen av emnet på kilder der du drøfter kort disse kildenes begrensninger, og hvordan vår oppfatning av dem formas av forhold i senere tider. Tilleggseksempler kan hentes fra Hellas-delen av emnet, men det er ikke obligatorisk.
