

Individual assignment KULH1492, Autumn 2011

In “From the Native’s Point of View...” Geertz makes a distinction between “experience-near” and “experience-distant” concepts. Discuss the relevance of this distinction for cross-cultural understanding and cultural analysis. Relate the discussion to the primary and secondary sources of your case.