KRIM2956 – International Criminal Justice and Mass Violence

Disclosure of exam assignment: November 16 at 1:00 PM

Submission deadline: November 19 at 1:00 PM

Exam paper

Choose either A or B:

A: What is the relationship between law and justice in international criminal justice? Present and discuss the ways in which these phenomena are understood by using at least three relevant texts from the reading list.

B: Use at least three relevant texts from the reading list to present and discuss arguments for and against individualizing accountability for international crimes.

The question can be answered in English, Norwegian, Danish or Swedish.

Size: Maximum 2000 words (roughly 5 pages). Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not included. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the 2000 word limit. Papers that exceed the 2000 word limit will be disallowed.

Cheating: Any exam at the University of Oslo is being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. Text recognition software will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus and web pages. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.

Submit your exam: The essays shall be handed in electronically in Inspera. Exams at the University of Oslo are anonymous. Instead of your name, write your candidate number found in StudentWeb.
