Lecture plan: KRIM2960/4960 Green criminology

19/8. 14.15-16.00: Introduction to Green Criminology and Wildlife trafficking
Ragnhild Sollund

Suggested readings:

10/9. 14.15-16.00: The crimes and harms of consumption: ecocide in everyday life’
Nigel South

Suggested readings:

A. Brisman and N. South (2013) ‘For a green-cultural criminology’, Crime, Media, Culture, 9, 2, 115-135

Suggested readings:

Suggested readings:

14/10. 14.15-16.00 The social and environmental harms of deforestation and timber trafficking. Tanya Wyatt

Suggested readings:

Paul Stretesky

Suggested readings:

Rune Ellefsen:

Suggested readings:

White, Rob (2013): "Environmental activism and resistance to state-corporate crime". In Elizabeth Stanley and Jude McCulloch (eds.). In: State crime and resistance. USA; Canada: Routledge, pp. 128-140. 12 pages. [K]

05.11. 14.15-16.00: Seminar.
Ragnhild Sollund

What is learnt? Discussion/ presentation by students (group work): What is green criminology?