KRIM2960 - Green Criminology

Final home exam, spring 2025

Disclosure of exam assignment: May 12 at 9:00 AM

Submission deadline: May 15 at 9:00 AM

Choose the first or the second assignment:

1. Read the following article: Three dead parrots show need for proper ban on wildlife trade - 360

   Pick one dilemma related to species justice that is raised in the article and discuss this on basis of your syllabus.

   Use the second part of your assignment to discuss pros and cons of the proposal regarding CITES put forward in the article and draw on contributions from your syllabus when relevant.

2. Read the following statement from The white house: Putting America First In International Environmental Agreements – The White House

   Place the article in relation to Lynch (et al's) contribution to your syllabus and discuss the consequences of the Trump administration's decision and the ways in which these may impact on environmental justice, species justice and eco-justice. Draw also on the other contributions from the syllabus when relevant.

Language: You may write your answer in Norwegian, Swedish, Danish or English.

Size: Maximum 2500 words.
Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not part of the word limit. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the word limit.

Papers that exceed the 2500 word limit will be rejected, and not graded.

To open the attachments in the exam assignment, press ctrl + left mouse button or right click and choose open in new tab/window.

Cheating: Any exam at the University of Oslo is being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. Text recognition software will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus and web pages. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.

Submit your exam: Your exam answer shall be handed in electronically in Inspera. Exams at the University of Oslo are anonymous. Write only your candidate number found in StudentWeb.
