KRIM2965 Home exam spring 24

KRIM2965 Social Harm and Criminalization

Exam paper

Pick and answer one of the questions below. Reference readings from the syllabus and other relevant sources.

Question A: Drawing on the perspectives discussed in the course and empirical examples, critically examine the claim that the industrial farming of animals for human consumption should be banned in the EU and Norway.

OR

Question B: Drawing on the perspectives discussed in the course and empirical examples, critically examine the claim that 'the aim of welfare should be to reduce the extent of harm that people experience from the cradle to the grave' (Hillyard & Tombs 2007: p.19).