General information

KRIM4956 – International Criminal Justice and Mass Violence

Final home exam, autumn 2024

Language: The exam paper can be answered in English, Norwegian, Danish or Swedish.

Size: Maximum 4000 words.
Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not included. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the 4000 word limit.

Papers that exceed the 4000 word limit will be rejected, and not graded.

Cheating: Any exam at the University of Oslo is being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. Text recognition software will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus and web pages. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.

Submit your exam: Your exam answer shall be handed in electronically in Inspera. Exams at the University of Oslo are anonymous. Write only your candidate number found in StudentWeb.

KRIM4956 - International Criminal Justice and Mass Violence

Choose either A or B:
Please make sure to reference course literature throughout your essay

A:

Does international criminal justice express universal justice? Based on a broad application of the course syllabus, present and discuss arguments for and against international criminal justice as universal. Make a research question that limits the scope of your analysis.

B:

On the syllabus there are articles addressing the development of 'the justice cascade' as well as 'entrepreneurial justice'. Present the main developments of both 'the justice cascade' and 'entrepreneurial justice'. Based on a wider application of the course syllabus, discuss the promises and pitfalls of these two developments.
