Deadline for withdrawing from the exam:

If you do not wish to take the exam in this course, you must withdraw from the exam in StudentWeb no later than two weeks before the exam, ie by Monday, April 18.

The examination:

The examination will consist of two questions/tasks. One of the questions/tasks you will have had time to prepare beforehand as a written assignment during the course. The written assignment of max 1500 words will be part of the home examination and count 50% of the grade (see detailed instruction in canvas). For MA students, the answer to both questions should not exceed 3,000 words in total. The two questions (1,500 words each) weigh equally (50% each).

The written assignment will be submitted individually as part of the final exam. You will then just need to copy and paste the text of your assignment as the answer to one of the 2 questions.

Your exam is conducted in Inspira, and you must familiarize yourself with how to submit your exam in Inspira. Make sure that your UiO-username and password are correct by logging in a few days before your exam starts. Use of sources and citations

All support materials will be permitted throughout the exam, including any legal sources available in Lovdata Pro (if relevant for your course).

The standard rules on cheating and plagiarism that apply to assignments also apply to this exam. This means that you must provide a reference whenever you draw upon another person's ideas, words or research in your answer to the exam question(s). Pieces of text quoted verbatim must be italicised or otherwise highlighted so it becomes clear that they are quotations.

There are no requirements as to which reference style you use. However, you must be consistent with your preferred reference style.

Your exam paper should be your independent work and a result of your own learning and efforts. Exam candidates are therefore not permitted to communicate with other persons about the exam question(s) or distribute draft answers or complete exam answers.
