

EXAM

JUR1560 - International Constitutional Law and Democracy (BA)

Spring 2017

Date: 12 May

Time: 10:00 - 14:00

International Constitutional Law and Democracy (ICLD)

ICLD bachelor level JUR1560

1. What are the main features of constitutionalism when applied on nation-states, cfr the articles by Dieter Grimm and Martin Loughlin?
2. What are the main features of international constitutionalism when referred to as a quality of international organisations? Use one of the UN, WTO or EU as examples.
3. To what extent can the UN be said to have democratic or undemocratic qualities+. Use references to liberal, republican and deliberative theories on democracy.

All three questions must be answered. They each account for 1/3 of the total exam.

Av Inger-Johanne Sand

