For lecture dates and location, please check the course website. The lecturers are:
- LB: Lee Bygrave, NRCCCL
- KM: Kevin McGillivray, NRCCCL
- TM: Tobias Mahler, NRCCCL
- IMS: Inger Marie Sunde, Politihøgskolen (Norwegian Police University College)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lecture No./ Date</th>
<th>Lecture</th>
<th>Issues</th>
<th>Required Reading</th>
<th>Lecturer</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Lecture 1 28.01.13| Introduction to course; Lex informatica and cyberspace I | • General overview of course
• Brief introduction to interlegal issues and dispute resolution
• Introduction to “lex informatica” and “code” | Lessig, Code version 2.0, 2006, Chapters 1 (8 pages), 7 (18 pages), 17 (10 pages)
| Lecture 2 04.02.13| Lex informatica and cyberspace II | (Cont’d from lecture 1) | As above | LB |
| Lecture 3 11.02.13| Self-regulation and co-regulation | • What is self-regulation?
• What is co-regulation?
• What are their respective advantages and disadvantages?
• Variants of codes of practice/conduct | Koops et al., “Should Self-Regulation be the Starting Point?” in Koops et al (eds.) Starting Points for ICT Regulation: Deconstructing Prevalent Policy One-Liners, 2006, pp. 109–149 (40 pages)
| Lecture 4 | Legal risk management | Notion of risk
  Notion of legal risk
  How to carry out a legal risk assessment | Mahler, Legal Risk Management: Developing and Evaluating Elements of a Method for Proactive Legal Analyses, With a Particular Focus on Contracts, 2010, Chapters 1, 4, 6, 13 (56 pages) | TM |
| Lecture 5 | Dispute resolution I: jurisdiction and enforcement | Jurisdiction and arbitration clauses
  Consumer protection issues
  Internet enforcement | Hörnle, “The Jurisdictional Challenge of the Internet”, in Edwards & Waelde (eds.), Law and the Internet, 2009, Chapter 3 (38 pages)
| Lecture 6 | Dispute resolution II: applicable law | Proper law of online contracts
  Proper law of torts
  Consumer protection issues | Hörnle (as above)
| Lecture 7 | Dispute resolution III: ADR | Types of ADR
  Mediation
| Lecture 8 | Cybercrime I | Emergence of new forms of criminal activity | Wall, Cybercrime, 2007, pp. 17–19; 157–166 (13 pages) | IMS |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Lecture/Workshop</th>
<th>Material</th>
<th>Notes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 08.04.13   |                                 | related to computer use and cyberspace
  - Distinguishing features of cybercrime
  - Legal methodological issues related to analysis and assessment of cybercrime
  - Enforcement problems | Edwards & Waelde (eds.), Law and the Internet, 2009, Chapters 19, 20 and 21 (92 pages)
  Council of Europe, “Cloud Computing and cybercrime investigations: Territoriality vs. the power of disposal?”, 2010 (10 pages) |
| Lecture 9  | Cybercrime II                   | (Cont’d from lecture 8)           | As above            |
| 15.04.13   |                                 |                                   | IMS                 |
| Lecture 10 | Essay workshop                  | Work-in-progress discussion of the Term Paper; includes tips on how to write a good paper (eventually, a thesis) | KM                  |
| 22.04.13   |                                 |                                   |                     |