

JUS5670 – E-Commerce law

Mid-term paper - 2017

Although according to Article 15 of the E-Commerce Directive (2000/31/EC), no general obligation was to be imposed on intermediary service providers to monitor the information which they transmit or store, or to actively seek facts or circumstances indicating illegal activity, decisions of the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) as well as of the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) in the last seven years suggest otherwise. Critically discuss the extent to which, if at all, you agree with this statement.
