Information about the exam

Information regarding your exam

SOS2402 - Family, gender equality and the welfare state

- The exam consists of a 4-hour school exam.

About the exam

- The examination consists of two sections:
  - Multiple choice (30 percent of the exam grade)
  - Long answer (70 percent of the exam grade), note that the long answer consists of two parts.
- In order to receive a passing grade on the exam, candidates must pass both sections.
- In the multiple choice section, you receive 5 points for the correct answer, and -2,50 points for the wrong answer. If you leave a question unanswered, you receive 0 points.
- In the long answer section, you can receive a total of 35 points in part one and 70 points in part two. You must answer both parts.
- The total score possible for the exam is 150 points.
- The examination text is in English and you may submit your response in Norwegian, Swedish, Danish or English.

Examination support material

Dictionaries handed in before the examination can be used during your exam.
Inspera also checks your spelling as you write.

After the exam

- After submission make sure that the exam is registered under Archive in Inspera.
- You do not have access to your exam answer after the exam because the multiple-choice tasks are reused.
- If you would like a copy of your essays, please send an email from your UiO-address to SV-info.

Long answer

2

PART 1

Outline the main changes in patterns of paid and unpaid work for men and women in Norway/Nordic countries.

PART 2

Discuss different theoretical explanations and the role of welfare policies that may explain the changes outlined in part 1.

2.1 Long answer - part 1

Fill in your answer here

Format

Words: 0

Maximum marks: 35

2.2 Long answer - part 2

Fill in your answer here

Format

Words: 0

Maximum marks: 70