Information about the exam

Information regarding your exam

SOS2402 - Family, gender equality and the welfare state.

- The exam consists of a 4-hour school exam.
- April 29 at 9:00 AM.

About the exam

- The examination consists of two parts:
  - Multiple choice (50 percent of the exam grade).
  - Long answer (50 percent of the exam grade).
- In order to receive a passing grade on the exam, candidates must pass both parts.
- In the multiple choice section, you receive 5 points for the correct answer, and -2,50 points for the wrong answer. If you leave a question unanswered, you receive 0 points.
- In the long answer part, you can receive a total of 100 points.
- The total score possible for the exam is 200 points.
- The examination text is in English and you may submit your response in Norwegian, Swedish, Danish or English.

Digital candidate instruction

You will find candidate instructions for the school examination as an external resource in the text. The candidate instructions show how UiO conducts the school examination.

Examination support material

Dictionaries handed in before the examination can be used during your exam.
Inspera also checks your spelling as you write.

After the exam

- After submission make sure that the exam is registered under Archive in Inspera.
- You do not have access to your exam answer after the exam because the multiple-choice tasks are reused.
- If you would like a copy of your essays, please send an email from your UiO-address to SV-info.

2 Part 2: Long answer assignment

Outline the main characteristics of contemporary Norwegian/Nordic parenthood policies and discuss possible implications for gender equality.

2 Long answer

Fill in your answer here. You can write maximum 1500 words in this assignment.