Note for all questions:
Regardless what question you pick, please use examples to answer it, including at least three references from the course's curriculum.

Exam Questions:
Answer one of the following three questions:

1. Anthropologists would argue that the formation of the market and the creation of commodities has been a historical process which is still ongoing. Discuss with examples.

2. Many people would argue that anthropologists are experts in 'non-Western' small-scale societies isolated from global economic life. Is the criticism justified? Discuss with examples.

3. To 'denaturalize' is a main aim of economic anthropology, founded in the diverse ways that ethnographers have witnessed people's engagement with economic life. Discuss with examples.

Best of luck!
