PHD Course TIK9022 ECONOMICS OF INNOVATION
16-20. APRIL 2018

Course program

Monday 16 April
09.15-11 Jan Fagerberg & students: Introduction to the course & short presentations by students
(5 minutes each, 1-3 powerpoint-slides about themselves & their projects)
11-12 Lunch break
12.15 -14 Jan Fagerberg: What can we learn from Schumpeter?
14.15-16 Taran Thune: Organizational determinants of innovation: perspectives, methods and empirical studies

Tuesday 17 April
09.15-11 Fulvio Castellacci: Sectoral dynamics
11-12 Lunch break
12.15-14 Edward Lorenz: How Europe learns: Forms of knowledge and modes of innovation
14.15-16 Maria Savona: Technology, Employment and Inequality

Wednesday 18 April
9.15-11 Martin Srholec: Technology, Capabilities and Economic Development
11-12 Lunch break
12.15-14 Tommy Clausen: Innovation: What can we learn from the innovation surveys?
14.15-15 Group work
15.15-17 Workshop with Tommy Clausen
Thursday 19 April
9.15 - 11 Edward Lorenz: Work-organization, education/training-systems and innovation performance
11-12 Lunch break
12.15-14 Maria Savona: Global Structural Change: Making sense of GVC.
14.15-16 Jan Fagerberg: Innovation policy

Friday 20 April
9.15-11 Olav Wicken: Reconfiguring the national innovation system: The case of Norway
11-12.30 Lunch break & group work (students prepare questions for summing up session)
12.30-14 Summing-up: Students & Edward Lorenz, Maria Savona, Martin Srholec & other